

UNIVERSITY OF NORTH CAROLINA AT CHAPEL HILL
DEPARTMENT OF CLASSICS
LANGUAGE TEACHING OBSERVATION REPORT

Faculty Observer Name:
 Course and Location:
 Date and Time of Visit:

Instructor Name:
 Term and Year:
 Number of Students Present:

Yes	No		Notes
		Gets class started on time
		Has materials ready and organized
		Manages class time efficiently
		Moves smoothly from topic to topic
		Ends class on time
		Knowledge of Latin/Greek
		Presents new material clearly and succinctly
		Explanations are at an appropriate level of complexity
		Examples are clear and helpful
		Anticipates problems students can be expected to have Pronounces Latin/Greek correctly
		Maintains an appropriately brisk pace
		Varies topics or activities (as appropriate)
		Makes eye contact with all students
		Calls on all students, at random
		Speaks clearly and at an appropriate pace
		Has designed appropriate student activities
		Engages students' attention
		Corrects errors promptly but gently
		Uses board/doc cam/computer effectively
		Encourages questions and responds to them with interest
		Explains complex concepts clearly
		Clearly explains how to prepare for next class

General Comments: