Submit the Prior Travel Authorization Form to the Admin. Asst. You are welcome to obtain the chair’s signature before submitting to the office, but it is not required.

If you will be combining personal and business travel, you must complete a Combined Business and Personal Travel Justification Memo prior to your trip. This should be submitted with the travel authorization form.
Personal Travel

It’s always helpful to let the office know when you will be traveling: we will put the dates on our calendar.

Are you traveling abroad?

- YES: Register in the Global Travel Registry (travel insurance is not required for personal travel)

- NO: Have a nice trip!

Do you have teaching responsibilities?

- YES: Submit prior travel authorization form at least 2 weeks prior to departure date.

- NO: Have a nice trip!
Travel Insurance Requirements

• If you are traveling abroad on official University business, you must purchase UNC-supplied travel insurance. There is absolutely no exception to this rule for faculty. Coverage can be purchased using research funds, but must be requested at least two weeks in advance of departure. You may also write a personal check. The cost of coverage for faculty has remained steady over the past three years at $3.90 per day. Faculty traveling with students are eligible for the student rate of $1.45 per day. Please ask the Admin. Asst. if you have any questions about this process.

• If you will be combining personal travel with official business travel, you may only purchase insurance coverage only for days you are conducting UNC business. This includes conferences, guest lectures, research, participation in UNC-sponsored programs, and travel to and from your destination. If you have a question about what constitutes business vs. personal travel, please ask the Admin. Asst. or Cinnamon.
Combined Business and Personal Travel

• Policy 1501 (Policy on Business Travel) has been expanded and now includes additional information regarding personal travel “before, after, or between days of business travel.” The policy can be read in full on the University’s PolicyStat website: https://unc.policystat.com/policy/6760936/latest/.

• As of summer 2017: “Prior to a trip, the traveler should describe the breakdown of business and personal components to their management for approval. In order for the travel to be reimbursed, their management must confirm that the trip is primarily for business, and the justification must be included in the reimbursement request. If personal time is attached to the trip, in addition to the traveler obtaining prior approval from management or a department head, you must provide a comparison quote from the same airfare provider for a direct flight on the business dates and attach it to the travel reimbursement.”

• The department has created a Combined Business and Personal Travel Justification Memo which can be found on the department website on the Forms and Documents page. Please submit this form when you submit your Travel Authorization Form. It will ultimately be submitted along with any receipts in travel reimbursement requests.

• If you will be traveling strictly for business reasons, only the Prior Travel Authorization Form is required.
